International application No. PCT/GB 03/03223

- 1.1 The subject matter of the claims is directed to a shrink film comprising a particular polyethylene film and not consisting of a particular polyethylene film.
- 1.2 The claimed subject matter therefore encloses a multi layer shrink film comprising said particular polyethylene film as a first layer and a biaxially oriented polypropylene or ethylene polymer as a second layer.
- 2.1 D1 teaches in the parts cited in the ISR all features of the present Claim 1 but for the thickness of the film.
- 2.2 A thickness of 5 to 500 micrometers is normal for a polymer film like the one now claimed.
- 2.3 Thus D1 takes away the inventive step of at least the subject matter of the present Claim 1.
- 2.4 In this respect it should be noted that according to page 8, line 34 to page 9, line 2 of D1 Figure 27 of D1 describes only 1 of the 2 loop reactors used in its Example 2.
- 3.1 The subject matter of the claims 2 to 25 adds nothing inventive to the subject matter of Claim 1.
- 3.2 Therefore the subject matter of the Claims 2 to 25 lacks an inventive step as long as the Applicant did not show that this subject matter causes an unexpected technical effect.
